What User likes about The Builders Arms:

friendly staff (and pub dog), well maintained london pride and excellent homemade pizza. this would be a great place to eat a pint and a bite while watching football on the big screens. read more. In nice weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, and there is free WLAN. The rooms on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about The Builders

we used to be in this pub at least days the week after the work, but since one is ever more unfriendly and eating is a sweat. I often ate there (because I was forced to meet or lunch). eating was never good and always overpriced, but recently it got worse. at after-work drinks we usually get cheese caabatta and chips with cheese.

that was the only acceptable eating they did. but now we have been burned chips and ciab... read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights:

The Builders Arms in Croydon traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a delicious Trifle, Naturally, you should also taste the scrumptious burgers, accompanied by sides like fries, salads, or wedges offered. Of course, there's also tasty pizza, baked straight from the oven according to original recipes, this sports bar is a favourite among the visitors, who enjoy not only the fantastic food and drinks, but also the opportunity to watch the latest games or races on the big screen.
