top place for traditional fish chips. modern location. the staff at the cups looked a bit lost, but as long as eating is at the end quality, it doesn't play a role. the portions are huge! read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in beautiful weather. What ChestnutBen doesn't like about The Queen Vic:

Absolutely terrible, overcooked frozen fish, day old chips in old oil. Don't waste your money at this dump. The worst part about this place is the appalling attitude of the "chef" cooking the fish and chips, he speaks to the staff like they are dirt, utterly disgraceful man who quite frankly needs to be taught a lesson in manners. This place is completely delisted, if I was starving to death I would crawl past! read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Queen Vic in Blackburn with Darwen traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a sweet Trifle, fine vegetarian dishes are also on the menu available. Dishes are usually prepared in the shortest time for you and brought to the table.
