Like a previous reviewer. we visited on Sunday, 4th July. Quite a long wait before our order taken, and then a further 35 minute wait for carveries to arrive. Our Yorkies were also burnt we just didn't eat that part, but poor quality control in allowing that to be served. The stuffing balls were also crunchy and overcooked. The rest of the food was fine, although the belly pork portion was pretty small, and even the... read more. If you crave for afters,

Western Arms Pub with its magical desserts can surely make an end of it, At the bar, you can unwind with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
