Exceptional food, delivered with outstanding service. I eat out regularly, in restaurants all over the world due to the fact I'm a food and travel blogger on social media. I often try yummy food, but the dishes at Fletcher's were executed perfectly. Incredibly well-balanced, impactful flavours sang in my mouth! If I were to give one criticism it would be to ensure the plates are going out hot as my food was Luke warm... read more. In nice weather you can even have something in the outdoor area. What Blooflame01 doesn't like about Fletcher's:

Snacks were Olives, Bread, and chicken bites which were ok. The fried anchovies were pretty tasteless and greasy. My starter was quail breast which was nice but no more than that. My Main was Morricon Lamb which had a nice spicy taste. However it was sparse, barely warm and slightly undercooked. It was pretty underwhelming and very quickly gone. I t needed more physically. My wife chose Ruby Steak which she wanted well... read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: Fletcher's in Plymouth traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a delicious Trifle, delicious vegetarian menus are also in the menu available. You can also relax at the bar after the meal (or during it) and enjoy a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, Also, the drinks menu at this place is exceptional and offers a significant and varied assortment of both local and international beers, which are definitely worth a try.
