We visited Penarth from Toronto, Canada. We were walking down in the marina and decided to try this lovely cafe. It is a smaller space but they had good amount of room for the 4 adults plus a toddler. The server was very friendly and helpful. The food was absolutely delicious. Three of us had the breakfast with the most delicious sausage. The other order was the salmon scramble which was gorgeously plated with vine t... read more. When the weather is good you can also eat outside, and there is free WiFi. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What sameF5688NO doesn't like about Compass Coffee:

Possibly the most pee-poor goats cheese salad I have ever had! A rip-off. Hardly any goats cheese...hardly any of anything for nearly 10 squid! Service was pee-poor too! Not enough staff looking after the outside diners. Sat outside for ages with panting dogs needing water after I'd requested a replenished dog water bowl on arrival (a bowl that was already there) and then taking the order took ages, and the water mor...
