a small jewel in hampstead heath, north london with a beautiful environment. perfect for a walk, favorite place for dog walkers and cyclists. the cafe next to the museum has great cake, hot drinks and sunday roasting. in any case, you have to see a place. read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What HCT1962 doesn't like about Brew House:

We were walking on Hampstead Heath and stumbled across Kenwood House and this eatery, knowing it would probably be expensive didn't prepare us for a £20 bill for two packs of sandwiches, two packets of crisps, a small bottle of beer and a small bottle of wine though. Place was really busy but on a blustery day were lucky to find a table indoors. Sandwiches were OK but nothing special. read more. Brew House from Barnet is a snug café, where you can enjoy a snack or cake with a hot coffee or a hot chocolate, The barbecued food is freshly cooked here on an open flame. When you're not so hungry, you can just treat yourself to one of the fine sandwiches, a healthy salad or another snack, Those who are passionate about the English cuisine will enjoy the extensive selection of traditional menus and indulge in the taste of England.
