This was a truly lovely experience. Myself 3 family members had an amazing Christmas lunch drinks. We were seated at table 47 which was decorated including crackers a card from the staff. All 3 courses were delicious the food was of extremely good quality, particularly the meat seafood. The wines were excellent too. All the staff were friendly attentive made us feel very welcome. Would definitely recommend this for t... read more. The overall experience at Fox and Hounds was marred by remarkably slow service. From the outset, after receiving our initial drinks, we were left unattended for an extended period. Despite being there for three hours, our waiter was notably absent, failing to check on our needs or offer additional drinks. This lack of attention significantly impacted the overall enjoyment of the evening, leaving us disappointed with... read more.
