This is an historic pub, with low beams, an inglenook fireplace with a proper wood fire, and local real ales, kept well. The landlord and the staff are all friendly and welcoming. Our room was in the oldest part of the pub, but it was spacious and sensitively refurbished, with a good-sized en-suite bathroom. The food is plentiful and, in my opinion, perfectly positioned, being unpretentious wholesome pub food, while... read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. WLAN is available at no extra cost. What silverappleyard doesn't like about The White Hart:

Unfortunately this pub seems to have fallen into the trend of adding a 'discretionary service charge' on to the bill, whether you like it or not. Few people would not want to ask for the bill to be revised, so you are effectively forced into it. It should be my choice whether I should tip. I would not return here for this reason. Aside from this, the pizza was reasonable, but not excellent, especially consider the pr... read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The White Hart in Ashford traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a delicious Trifle, The guests of the restaurant are also thrilled with the large selection of various coffee and tea specialities that the establishment offers. After the meal (or during it), you can still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
