I love it there. they are always so friendly and their sauces are made in the house. hummus, tzatziki and chicken sauce. really delicious. ignore other reviews. never had bad experiences and always on time. for my birthday a few tasty konafa and basbosa was given to me! sugary sweet desert read more. In nice weather you can even eat in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Eat Greek:

the food was warm, and I have a problem with what they call gyros. as someone who grew up in Cyprus and visited Greece several times, this simply does not come close. they can not only spit thunder meat up and cook it a bit longer and call it 'gyros'. If the one who runs this business is Greek, they will recognize the difference. read more. At Eat Greek in Swansea, delicious pizza is baked fresh using a traditional method, and the guests of the restaurant are thrilled with the Greek specialties. Most often, the burgers of this place, which are among the highlights, are offered along with sides like french fries, salads or wedges.
