We did not have a lot of time so simply opted for the set menu for two people. It was all prepared quickly and we enjoyed it. If I were to offer an observation, I would not put the fruity chicken (battered really nice), with sweet and sour chicken balls (also battered) but we had no problems with the quality of the food. Michelle P doesn't like about Lin's Wok:

First time we've been here and gave it a go simply because shun fat was closed and there is nowhere else to get chips in Bromyard. It was not nice at all. Chips were soggy and everything was ridiculously greasy, as if the oil hadn't been changed for a while. The portion sizes were also not very good, but given the quality of the food that was probably a good thing. Would never go back based on this visit read more.
