We dined here after the Queens Baton Relay. It was very busy and loud but we were seated in a nice corner away from the rowdy stag doos. The service was unbelievable considering how busy the restaurant was. Starters came quickly, drinks were topped up regularly, and food was delicious. Huge thanks to Tammy for going above and beyond and being so helpful and friendly and fab with the kids. read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Sambucca 2:

Been many times before and will still continue to visit. Went with friend only two of us for Sunday lunch and got to the restaurant for 12.15 Busy as per usual but could not have got a worse table if we tried, table placed in middle of walk way to the cavery. In a nutshell trying to fit as many customers in as possible. This meant people knocking your chair both staff and customers and people walking right next to yo... read more.
