we discovered boon thanks to happy cow, and it was a very beautiful discovery. we tried the salad with pumpkin, curry and rice (very good) and also the quiche with salmon and brokkoli, with salad as side. large portions so that we did not eat the dessert, but we will come back soon. even if there is no table service, the waitress/owner was really nice to us! read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in pleasant weather. What User doesn't like about Boon:

Boon is a spacious, modern lunch spot right across the Castle of the Counts. We took the vegan big (mixed) davai salad and a soup of the day with bread. I had never heard of davai before, so it was a pleasant discovery.

These dumplings are stuffed with either a spicy filling or a cheezy filling (which was more spicy to my taste). I liked it, although the davai had a slightly bitter aftertaste. The plate could have be... read more. It's definitely always an event to be in a typical saloon and to taste; to feel like a cowboy for once with a chilled drink and also the finger food like crispy fries, onion rings or a hearty burger, for breakfast they serve a tasty breakfast here. If you'd like something dessert to finish off, Boon does not disappoint with its extensive selection of desserts, The customers of the establishment also appreciate the extensive variety of various coffee and tea specialities that the restaurant has to offer.
