Went for lunch with a group of friends. We chose off the Golden Age menu. Two courses and hot drink for £5. I had Hammond served with chips, egg and peas and Apple pie with custard and cup of coffee. The service was good and there was plenty to choose from on menu. Will certainly be going again. read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat. In the morning, you can enjoy a appetizing brunch at White Bull, freely at your own will, At the bar, you can unwind with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Furthermore, there are several typically British dishes on the card that give every Englishman abroad the feeling of being at home.
