What User doesn't like about The White Bull: Booked a table for Sunday evening on the day, when we arrived we bought drinks and chose a table it was then the server came and advised that half the menu was off and they had burgers but no cheese. Ordered what limited food...they had but then the food came without the sauces which were also out of stock... we were charged full price. Won't be coming back I'm afraid. Waitress was very friendly read more. If you crave for tasty snacks, The White Bull with its delicious desserts can surely make an end of it.
