nice lunch, especially the king prawn spiedini, which was beautifully presented and absolutely delicious. the personal was friendly and helpful great experience. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather, and there is no-charge WLAN. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Zizi:

Very rushed service, table booked for 8pm, kitchen closes at 9 apparently. Lots of things unavailable from the menu. Waitress just wanted us out, table was cleared with people still eating. Toilets were awful, not cleaned. Not cheap and plenty of other decent options in...Windsor which would make me not chose ZiZi's again. read more.
