What User likes about Terrace At The Dilly: the peter Rabbit-Hochtee was incredibly delicious and beautifully presented. what a fun experience in london! the dilly solarium is beautiful and independent of the weather you can sit under the sky and feel like outside. mango tee is also fabulous. recommend to everyone and especially those with children. read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. WiFi is available free of charge. What User doesn't like about Terrace At The Dilly:

the personal was really nice, but I am deeply disappointed that it was both my daughter's birthdays 2 and 3 years old and nothing special was done for her and I felt that it was altogether admitted. the lift didn't work when we had the buggy. I just thought I should go somewhere else. read more. The large variety of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Terrace At The Dilly even more worthwhile, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Most often, the burgers of this place, which are among the highlights, are offered along with filling side dishes like fries, salads or wedges, The tasty desserts of the establishment also shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes.
