the personal is very friendly and welcoming. that was delicious. I can't blame anything that personal asked if everything was in order and they left it. but if they were otherwise or extra, they were always someone round and around. I will be here for the afternoon if not a nice lunch. the food and service is beautiful. many thanks for a great experience read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, and there is free WiFi. What User doesn't like about Mercure Hull Grange Park:

There was two of us and the chicken tikka was ok, but the fish and chips was not very nice at all, the fish was dry and the batter wasn't crispy and the chips were hard and overall the meal was just tasteless. I probably should have said something at the time, especially as it was also very expensive, but it had been a very long day travelling from Reading to Hull, so I was just too tired. However, the service was ex... read more. The extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties makes a visit to Mercure Hull Grange Park even more worthwhile.
