a charming cafe with only three tables and colors that come from the walls, but the most beautiful eat. only libanesen I have ever been so can not compare, but had a pleasant lunch here, the cauliflower dish was the best vegetarian dish I have. every taste and taste of the herby flat brotes was still in my mouth two hours later. and the Lebanese tee was beautiful. will definitely come back soon. read more. In beautiful weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Cedar's Lebanese:

Previously, to get this little cafe all the time for Arab breakfast, and we thought it was the same. they have changed the decoration that is much better. Unfortunately the staff was cold, tables were sticky and eating was a disappointment. I hope this will improve because I am constantly in this opposite and enjoy the Arab breakfast I was used to. I love the middle eastern eating and this place was formerly my favo... read more.
