What User likes about Thai Square Putney Bridge:

we enjoyed our meals and eating and the waiting staff were excellent. but when leaving the restaurant, we asked if a taxi could be called, and the man at the reception looked at us vaguely and told us that there was a taxi there and his arm turned around. there was no taxi rank, he could not be disturbed. this spoils an otherwise enjoyable evening. the food was fat and appeared precooked. it was far too expensive given the quality of the good. I had much better Thai food for a quarter of the price in ground restaurants. the Thai square restaurant was a demolition and extremely disappointing, we will never go there again. read more. Thai Square Putney Bridge from London uses for its delicious menus the Thai culinary famous spices and (fish-)sauces, along comes freshly harvested vegetables, seafood and meat, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. The Asian fusion cuisine is likewise an important part of Thai Square Putney Bridge. Anyone who finds the normal and generally known dishes too ordinary should approach with a willingness to experiment and try some unexpected combination of ingredients consume, On the menu there are also several Asian dishes.
