What User likes about The Red Brick: in the antique district it is good to look outside. funky n fairtrade n no fear, it is ethic on the sleeved. beautiful atmosphere and personal. great coffee and vegan and dog friendly. best roasted veg toastia we ever had. can't wait until. back. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about The Red Brick:

had a cheese spoon and suppe. the suppe was silly and the slut was not fresh and small for the price. had to wait half an hour and then said they had forgotten the order. Odd thing happened 2 years earlier the same thing....Some of the other food looks good, but this place is a hit really pretend to be bohemian, but really only expensive read more. For breakfast, you can enjoy a diverse brunch at The Red Brick, as much as you want, Of course, you also have to try the fine burgers, that come with sides like fries, salads, or wedges provided. It should not be forgotten that there is a extensive selection of coffee and tea specialties in this restaurant.
