What User likes about The At Fitzwilliam: went for an early dinner, after the theater matinee and in the pre-theater menu. the restaurant is a long wide room that has skillfully divided into three sections, so if rest does not appear empty and if busy does not seem crowded. eating was excellent and the wine list was rated with something for all budgets cheaply. service was very good. would recommend it and will try again to the full menu. read more. What User doesn't like about The At Fitzwilliam:

Eat was okay, waited an hour for our sandwiches. in this phase we had no drink, water or something, and when the food arrived, we had to ask for our teapot, which lasted another 10 minutes.
