Amaaazing coconut buns! Oh my. The coconut custard (that 's what they call it at Kowloon, but it 's a far cry from French custard is absolutely superb. The best I 've had! The pasty yet crumbly texture is jam-packed into the glistening pastry, glowing out from within like a golden yolk. It 's darker yellow than most coconut bun fillings, and the tastiest by far. My boyfriend gave their egg tarts the Hong Konger appro... read more. What User doesn't like about Kowloon:

I'm in favor of running away from this busy street in Chinatown and avoiding these crowded establishments where it's hard to get close. at the beginning of gerrard str you will see. a buffet at a fixed price, 12 pounds that require you before you start, and a poor service for some Chinese dishes and many other Oriental restaurants.
