Despite being tucked way out of London in Hatch End, it's a 6 min walk from an overground station. Which isn't bad to be fair. We arrived in the height of a Saturday night foray and was told it would be a half an hour wait, which it was. We had the chance to peruse the menu whilst shouting our interest above the thumping house system. Honestly it was too loud! I'm hoping this was a Saturday night thing, but I've a fe...
