Three of us went for dinner on our last night of our narrow boat trip. It was excellent value, the staff were very attentive and the drinks realistically priced. They have an 'over 60 's ' menu which gives 2 courses for £12 and the food was very good. I highly recommend it. read more. The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physical limitations, and there is complimentary WiFi. If the weather are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What Jackie H doesn't like about The Red Lion Grill:

As a vegan it can be challenging to get a decent food option on some restaurant menus but never have I seen such a poor offering for a meal before. A warm Mediterranean salad consisted of a lettuce and badly chopped red onion, and some sort of dressing; not even an olive or tomato to be seen. Just appalling, not filling, not nutritionally balanced and certainly nothing like a colourful Mediterranean salad and based on... read more. In the morning, a diverse brunch is offered at The Red Lion Grill in Shropshire that you can enjoy as much as you like. You can take a break at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. In addition, you can order fresh roasted grill goods. Particularly fans of the British cuisine are excited about the large selection of traditional menus and love the typical English cuisine.
