One of the best burger meals I've ever experienced in such a relaxed setting, located in the truly picturesque village of Beddgelert. The beef burger itself was quite thick, yet cooked to perfection, topped with bacon melted cheese, presented on a fresh bun, with an ample side serving of chips and salad. I could not fault it in any way and devoured every last morsel. Additionally the service was efficient, and staff... read more. You can use the WiFi of the place free of charge, And into the accessible rooms also come clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. If the weather conditions are right, you can also eat and drink outside. What

andrewmP8278AT doesn't like about The Saracens Head:

Looking for somewhere for a bite to eat, I was told that a table would be free in about an hour, so I asked if I could reserve it. I thought that a name would suffice, but they wanted my full name, telephone number, email address and even my credit card details! For a table reservation! Fearing they would probably demand a copy of my birth certificate and DNA sample, I declined and went elsewhere. I really felt unwell... read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Saracens Head in Gwynedd traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a delicious Trifle, Inthemorning a delicious brunch is offered here. At the bar, you can still relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
