If you fancy an indulgent night away this is the place for you. This was an actual open the room door and gasp hotel. Even had our own little space in the garden. Absolute gorgeous. The photos with this review says it all.

The service and welcome was outstanding. Breakfast was delicious. The choice of pastries, fresh fruit, teas coffees, cereal and cooked breakfast was superb, it was delicious (we had pastries and th... read more. You can use the WiFi of the place free of charge, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. The premises on site are accessible, and therefore no problem for clientele with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about The Lagg:

We stayed here recently for 1 night and weren't that impressed by anything that this hotel offered. The reception staff who greeted us was quite short and rude when we arrived after a long day travelling. There was no cooked vegetarian breakfast options. One girl working at breakfast to cover all the tables, which seemed a bit unfair. Fairly basic for the price of 1 night accommodation. Some good points: the garden o... read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is absolutely possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Lagg in North Ayrshire traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a delicious Trifle, In the morning they serve a varied breakfast here.
