we were greeted by laura who brought us to our table. my partner and I had both the broccoli and parmesan suppe for starters with homemade brot on the side. the suppe was really tasty and was complemented by homemade brot. I had served the hot pork cake on a potato bed bed with green leafy vegetables with a mini-gravure. my partner had the chicken with seasonal roast veg and stylton sauce. emily, kiera and james have che... What User doesn't like about Queens Arms:

Popped in as we were passing by, went to the bar to get some drinks and were served by a surly barman. All the staff seemed disinterested and made us feel ill at ease. Halfway through our first round a young lad came and took...another order for us, half an hour later we were still waiting for the second lot of drinks so we left. Service was abysmal so won't be returning any time soon. read more. During meals, a refreshing drink is essential.
