Lovely baguette crammed with filling but I make no apology for saying £6.50 is excessive. That's what I'd expect to pay in a pub or restaurant, not in a takeaway sandwich bar. £4 ish would be more reasonable. read more.

What Niggy2 doesn't like about Sandwich De Witney:

Popped in to get a baguette whilst shopping. Pretty standard fillings and a bit boring to be honest. The baguette was lovely and if it had a bit more continental influence, with some decent flavoured cold meats, etc. it would have been ok not much effort made to be different from any other standard sandwich shop it's certainly not a pret that's for sure. Nice fresh baguette though read more. A journey through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: Sandwich De Witney in West Oxfordshire traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a fine Trifle, the menu also includes fine vegetarian meals. When you're not so hungry, you can just treat yourself to one of the tasty sandwiches, a small salad or another snack, The menus are usually prepared in a short time and fresh for you.
