We went to this pub for lunch with a group of friends. We were asked to order our meals in advance from the menu on the website. The food was very disappointing, vegetables were over cooked, the belly pork was extremely fatty and tough and with no crackling and the portion was small, the soup was bland, the gammon was very fatty. Worst of all though was that when we came to pay, each of the main courses was about £3... read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: Shears Inn Paris Gates in Calderdale traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a fine Trifle, In addition, the cocktail menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a wide selection of beers from the region and the whole world. The restaurant also offers a extensive assortment of delicious tapas, which are certainly worth a try, You can also unwind at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
