We had a wonderful lunch at this Cafe which is accessed through the wool shop. It was clean and nicely laid out and there was a lovely garden at the back where you can sit. We had baguettes for lunch which were filling and absolutely delicious and served with a side of home-made chutney and coleslaw. The ham was home-cooked and the chutney was so good that we bought a jar. This cafe is a little off the beaten track b... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat in beautiful weather, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Janes Of Fishguard:

Staff with no face coverings, no check on contact details and no sanitiser on tables unlike all other places we've eaten/drank at in Fishguard. If they flaunt the legal arrangements for Covid, what other regulations do they ignore? We have vulnerabilities re health issues and felt extremely uncomfortable and anxious. No point in challenging them as they will know the Covid arrangements only too well. Finally, would ta... read more. At Janes
