What Logan Johnson likes about Fishers Kitchen:

Returned to Fishers with two friends who had looked after my home whilst I was on holiday a friend of theirs joined us for her first visit to Fishers. I had intended to have a Sunday roast but instead opted for the Lemon Sole which was delicious. Eton Mess was an alternative to the missing Baked Alaska that was double delicious, I remarked that it should be on the menu full time. All in all I highly recommend Fishers... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and be served. What User doesn't like about Fishers Kitchen:

We had a great meal at the restaurant, sadly it was somewhat spoilt by another guest who had brought a dog to the restaurant. When another guest complained about the dogs constant barking he was told by the dog owner to leave and he wasn't welcome back to the restaurant because she is a regular and she didn't want him there. I think in a restaurant with small outside space where sound can echo barking pets should not... read more.

Fishers Kitchen from London is a snug café, where you can enjoy a snack or cake with a hot coffee or a hot chocolate, You can also unwind at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Without doubt, the right drink enhances every meal; with this thought in mind, this gastropub offers a large selection of tasty and local alcoholic beverages like beer or wine, and you can look forward to the delicious typical seafood cuisine.
