What simply-peregrinating likes about Beau's Kitchen:

Enjoyed a very tasty lunch. There were tempting vegetarian and vegan options so it was difficult to make a choice. The accompanying salad to my meal was so good. The service was good and although we went at the end of a busy Saturday and were the last in were never rushed. The prices were reasonable for Skipton where some places do over charge. Kitchen:

Went to this cafe for lunch on a day out to Skipton. The food was edible and tasty but I ordered bruschetta with roast vegetables and I was served with a plate of roast vegetables with toast placed on top of it. It tasted nice but wasn't what I expected. My husband ordered a pie which he was happy with. The cafe was very quiet, the staff had a baby with them which was crying, the kitchen was visible and really untidy... read more. A visit to Beau's Kitchen becomes even more rewarding due to the extensive variety of coffee and tea specialties, for breakfast they serve a tasty breakfast here. When you're not so ravenous, you can just treat yourself to one of the tasty sandwiches, a small salad or another snack.
