The Bentley restaurant is beautiful and decadent. We couldn't have asked for a more beautiful setting, however, it was quite empty so more people should come here to make it more atmospheric! We experienced 5* service.

They even catered for my gluten free requirements. I expected a small portion afternoon tea, but in fact we couldn't eat it all and were given a selection of cakes to take home with us. The teas and fo... read more. What

Bethany doesn't like about 1880 At The Bentley Kempinski:

Service was superb and very friendly but the food wasn't really up to the standards one would expect for that sort of price. The sandwiches were a bit stale, the pastries a bit too sweet (as in hard to tell the flavours through the sugar sort of sweet) and the tea was in bags rather than loose-leaf and without the extra pot of hot water to control the strength. The decor was grand though, shame the food was just aver... read more.
