Maxim Restaurant offers a varied kosher dairy and fish menu that has both passionate supporters and discontented patrons. While many appreciate the generous portions and delightful dishes like smoked salmon salads and hummus starters, others lament rising prices and inconsistent service—once described as "dreadful."

Some diners encounter long waits and basic errors, while others enjoy a pleasant atmosphere with attentive staff. The restaurant's special lunch menu boasts excellent value, although experiences can vary significantly.

Overall, Maxim stands as a popular choice with room for improvement in service and food consistency.
