Here you can find the menu of Peach Garden in Birmingham. At the moment, there are 19 meals and drinks on the food list. Diners reveal a spectrum of experiences at this once-beloved restaurant, showcasing a decline in portion sizes and food quality. Longtime patrons lament the reduction in serving sizes and greasy dishes, while others criticize lukewarm meals and lackluster service. However, some still commend the generous portions and authentic flavors. For those seeking affordability, this canteen-style eatery offers decent options, though hygiene and ambiance may leave much to be desired. While the spicy Laohuo soup garners praise, inconsistent quality and service have left many searching for alternatives in the competitive Chinatown scene.
