We stopped here for pasties and a smoothie. The cafe looked basic and unassuming but the food did not disappoint. I had a lamb and mint and my partner had a traditional beef pasty. They were piping hot and very tasty. The raspberry smoothie was excellent. The staff were polite and efficient. All very reasonably priced. No frills. Definitely would recommend! read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and eat and drink in nice weather, and there is no-charge WiFi. What User doesn't like about Shake Snack:

Friendly service but imsorry if you're going to sell cheese and onion toasties please include the cheese. The food in Burford as a whole is of such poor quality, yet another place for a local not to visit again in because the foods so bad and very expensive. I don't mind paying the price but at least make it worth it. We're not all tourists who won't visit again, think of the locals too. On top of that, just think of... read more.
