came to our friends local pub for a last night in blackheath, before we made our way back to home the menu had a descending choice for a pub. we started with a mac cheese biss assizer. they were creamy and delicious. they have fallen in no time. I decided to try my first scotch egg. the meat outside was very tasteful. it was very good, I will definitely look for this back home. I then had the crab cakes main course t... read more. I have booked to eat 12.45 a.m. for the 29.march for my parents 70th anniversary quite special. we have booked to go to royal standard headington oxford. I just called to change the amount of covers. only to say there was no booking! also. the kitchen would not be open. as shameful, I have printed the booking confirmation as a proof of booking. not even an apology.
