We have just returned from a few days in Somerset and looking for somewhere to eat nearby we chose the Lion and were not disappointed with our decision so much so that we returned later in the week for a birthday dinner.

Food was delicious with some originality which made a change from the traditional pub food menu's. On both occasions the special's menu offered very attractive options included sea bream and lamb sha... read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and be served in beautiful weather, And into the accessible rooms also come guests with wheelchairs or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about The Lion At Pennard:

The only plus about eating here was being able to take our dog. Despite telling the waitress that I intensely dislike spiced food, my expensive rib eye steak had hot peppers pounded into it, and there was something very hot on the plate. Very disappointing that excellent quality ingredients might as well have been curried!! Not everyone likes spice, some of us like to be able to taste our food! read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: The Lion At Pennard in Mendip traditionally shines for example with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and for dessert a sweet Trifle, Forbreakfast a delicious brunch is offered here. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), also relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
