We had meant to visit this cafe for quite a while as their ice cream and range of flavours is second to none. Myself and my wife popped in for a late breakfast, probably the best breakfast we've both had in a long time. Hot, well cooked, quality produce well presented by friendly, welcoming staff, very reasonably priced. Dogs also welcome. read more. The place also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Henley Ice Cream:

Was served up slimy cucumber on my plate with yesterdays salad, when I complained I was told the rotting cucumber had not touched the sandwich so all was fine, manager refused to sort the problem, three emails, and three visits to the shop, staff have learned well from the manger, rude and completely uninterested in complaints, only one way this shop is going ..
