Would be very easy to miss the Cwellyn Arms, looks like just another rural Welsh village pub. We're very glad we didn't, having turned up hoping for reasonable pub grub on a wet Sunday evening. In summary we had an excellent meal of tasty well presented food. Of particular note was the Chicken Supreme and the Fish Pie, but everything we had was good. Followed up by some lovely home made desserts normally the weakest... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Cwellyn Arms:

Food disappointing compared to last time we visited, fish pie was more potato than fish and overpriced at £21+. Better and cheaper options in nearby Beddgelert. read more. Cwellyn Arms from Gwynedd is a good option for a bar if you want to have a cocktail after work and hang out with friends, Lovers of the British cuisine are impressed by the comprehensive variety of traditional menus and enjoy the taste of England.
