It's the first time I've been at this pub, I've just experienced some great food, great service and lovely staff. Well worth a try if you're looking for good food and ambiance. read more. The premises in the restaurant are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about Travellers Rest: The food was ok at most. Best part was the chips they were great. Biggest complaint was probably the customer service. There was a young lad with glasses who seemed like the only person there with common decency. We ordered our first drinks at the bar and weren't asked if we wanted another one despite finishing them before our mains even came out! read more. A roundtrip through Great Britain without getting on a plane is easily possible when it comes to culinary delights: Travellers Rest in Kirklees traditionally shines for instance with Fish and Chips, mashed potatoes or roast with Yorkshire Pudding and as dessert a fine Trifle, At the bar, you can unwind with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
