I have been visiting the Shahenshah ever since I was a child, living 3 streets and growing up on their potato cakes(I've visited when I can over the years, and the snacks and sweets have always been consistent and delicious. It is down-to-earth, good...value for money, and has efficient and polite service. They are also a great option to cater for a party. I recommend the pakora (with the red sauce They also seem to... The restaurant and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. What User doesn't like about Shahenshah:

many sikhs and hindus after religious convictions eat no halal meat as it is forbidden to them. strangely, the loading sikh shows religious image language, which in the rule means that food is not seminal. the load has not done any obvious effort to explain the...Fleisch is half, so it is quite misleading for the customers. it is in order if a business wants to serve halal meat, but customers should not be misled. At Shahenshah in Derby, a selection of fine meals with typical Indian spices and sides like rice or naan are freshly prepared, You can take a break at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Look forward to the enjoyment of scrumptious vegetarian dishes, Besides, the successful blend of different menus with new and partially adventurous products is appreciated by the visitors - a beautiful case of Asian Fusion.
