My Husband and I stayed in the Feathers room for a night on the 30th August for his Birthday. We both had a lovely time. Such a beautiful setting with stunning views. Cute vintage decor through out the hotel. The owners were nice with a sense of humour. The food was good... We had afternoon tea which was very cute... A selection of sandwiches and cakes in the lovely little tea room. The breakfast was great with good... read more. In beautiful weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area, and there is complimentary WiFi. What Donna Insley

doesn't like about Abel's Harp:

We went here last year...when I booked I called to enquire about facilities hot tub etc....as this was main reason for booking,when we got there it was broken!! And by the looks off the scummy water it had been months but when I called they didn't mention this...breakfast took ages coming out and was then stone cold,,overall very disappointing,no apology at the end when I complained or nothing read more. A visit to Abel's Harp becomes even more rewarding due to the extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties, Forbreakfast a hearty brunch is offered here. Furthermore, there are several typically British meals on the menu that give every Englishman abroad the feeling of being at home, Besides the delicious sandwiches, healthy salads and other snacks also make a good snack.
