a Greek restaurant with a friendly setting, warm welcome and..... to the tasteful and hearty cuisine. I've been seeing him for thirty five years without ever getting tired of it. the environment is typically Brussels (large place,) which does not spoil anything, but reassure yourself it is not a restaurant that is usually referred to as a restaurant for tourists it is a real professional that is worth the detour! read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in pleasant weather, and there is free WiFi. What User doesn't like about El Greco:

Very good food. Very good service. Meanwhile, we've been here 15 times a year. It's gonna be a little more expensive, crisis for everyone, we'll think. But. The last time we got scared, I can't find this in a restaurant, mice!

So fast that people walk away from the chairs and tables and not that it was one-time thing, the last time, one jumped behind my partner's back less than a mile from the tone to take something...
