in the bed of oakleigh on Sunday for a few drinks. we chose for table service and were welcomed by friendly staff who were extremely attentive. After I saw some Sunday roast dinner coming from the kitchen, my wife and I decided to stay for something to eat...Our order was taken and our meal arrived in a contemporary way. eating was as good as it saw and expensive... I would recommend a visit to the oakleigh, where the... read more. The diner is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical disabilities, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and eat and drink. WiFi is available free of charge. What User doesn't like about The Oakleigh:

3 of us in our 50s/60s visited for drinks and food on the Friday before lockdown fully ended. None of the staff (indoors or outdoors) wore masks. Bouncers patrolling around looking menacing when practically all of the tables were groups of ladies or middle aged...men out for a quiet night. My double burger was so over cooked and dry that when I cut into it, it crumbled into pieces and fell of the wooden platter. Definitely don't visit for the food. In fact, I wouldn't visit the place again as the vibe wasn't good. Having now read previous comments about this place, it seems to be a recurring theme. Good luck. At The Oakleigh in Southend-on-Sea, juicy grilled food is freshly roasted on an open flame and garnished with delicious sides, Of course, you also have to try the delicious burgers, that come with sides like fries, salads, or wedges served. In case you want to have breakfast, a versatile brunch is offered to you, Lovers of the English cuisine are impressed by the extensive diversity of traditional meals and enjoy the taste of England.
