We were there with a large group, booked the entire place (though they did let others in), and our order was submitted a week in advance. Within 30 minutes they ran out of most beers. Then they were supposed to serve entrees at 18h30, which became an hour and a half later, then waiting almost two hours for our main course, a cheeseburger that came straight from the supermarket. The chocolate mousse dessert was also u... read more.
