Very noisy even though windows were open to the street on a fine day and the main courses had obviously been lingering on the pass. That was odd as they were pasta which would have cooked in minutes once our empty starter plates had been carried through. read more. This time, the staff as we checked in were rude, it was as always mega busy but we found the team to be very stressed out. We waited for 35 mins to place our order and whilst they apologised it took away our past love for the place. The food when it came was as it always has been very tasteful and good quality not sure we w... read more. In the morning, you can enjoy a diverse brunch at Cecconis, freely at your own will, and you can expect typical Italian cuisine with classics like pizza and pasta.
