We came here for dinner with our 2 dogs, after a very long drive from the South. Having booked a table online from ages ago, we arrived and were shown to our table. The place appeared big and spacious, and we had ample space around our table for our dogs. We had king prawns, spicy chicken wings and chicken goujons for starters, which was great! For mains, my husband had the burger while I had a lite scampi, and they... read more.
