The place looks very lovely and has a charm to it. The staff was very kind and the welcome lemonade was a really heartwarming surprise even though I expected it to taste better. The menu is quite extensive and had many tempting meals. Both the lasagne and the pizza that we tried was wonderful. One of the best lasagne I've eaten in my life even though I've been to Italy many times. Would visit again. read more. What Michael Owen doesn't like about Ask Italian:

Nice food and a new restaurant, but small portions and slow service. Not too different from the other chain Italian eateries, the food was well cooked and flavoursome. But a wait of 30 minutes, when there were only 7 customers in building, was just a bit too much. Add to the fact that the pizza looked a lot bigger on the website. Probably will not be back in the future. read more.
