Had one of those rare but memorable stays at the Cholmely. Beautiful twin room with en-suite perfectly maintained/serviced furnished. The property, in a pretty setting is lovely and very peaceful with it's own farm shop selling lovely produce. Staff are pleasant, polite and efficient and the owner friendly genuinely charming. We had an evening meal chosen from a fresh extensive menu. It was delicious as was the wine.... read more. Good but not top Drawer! Much anticipated visit having waited a while to get their with Family left us a little disappointed. The portions were pretty big but the food just did not have any 'stand out' qualities. The Gammon my wife had was very dry and served with bland plain rice, some of us had the fish (which was great! but we then had to share a bowl of not great chips which was quite awkward to pass between the...
